

Enclosure 1

Notice to New Employees
Unemployment Benefits Under UCFE

If you have applied or been receiving unemployment insurance benefit payments, it is your responsibility, under penalty of law, to notify the appropriate local office, in writing, to discontinue the issuance of unemployment insurance checks now that you are employed. Failure to notify the state ESA can result in a penalty or fine, imprisonment, or both.